

ASSEMBLY INSTRUCTIONS:

Cut out each bookmark as a single piece.

Fold in half along the center line.

For extra durability, glue the inside surfaces or laminate after assembly.

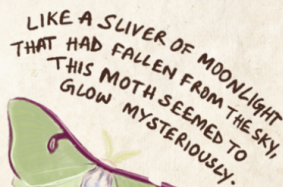

BOOKMARK 1

FRONT

BACK

THIS LITTLE MARINE CRUSTACEAN
IS PERCEIVING THE WORLD
IN WAYS WE CAN BARELY
EVEN IMAGINE

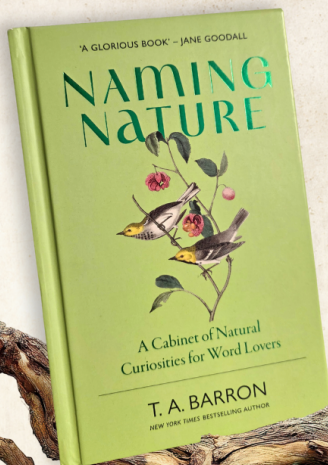

LIKE A SLIVER OF MOONLIGHT
THAT HAD FALLEN FROM THE SKY,
THIS MOTH SEEMED TO GLOW MYSTERIOUSLY.

A SINGLE, DELICATE CREATURE, NO BIGGER THAN ONE OF OUR FINGERNAILS, SHARES A STRIKING KINSHIP WITH OUR HOME PLANET.

WE HUMANS OURSELVES
ARE JUST TINY BARNACLES, CAST ADRIFT, FLOATING
FOR A WHILE ON THE VAST AND MYSTERIOUS
SEA OF LIFE.

From Naming Nature
by T. A. Barron

In this lyrical journey
through 80 fascinating
creatures, bestselling
author T. A. Barron
combines a love of nature
and a love of words to
uncover the stories behind
the names we give the
living world.

From Naming Nature
by T. A. Barron

DISCOVER MORE
TABarron.com

@tabarronauthor

/TABarronFans

© 2026 T. A. Barron

BOOKMARK 2

FRONT

BACK

SOMETHING ABOUT THAT PASSIONATE CRY SEEMS OLDER THAN OLD, VIBRATING WITH EARTH'S EARLIEST MUSIC.

TO BE JOYFUL,
JUST LISTEN TO A MEADOWLARK

THESE TREES ARE TRUE
GIANTS, STRETCHING
FROM SOIL
TO SKY

WHERE THERE ARE DRAGONFLIES,
THERE IS WATER,
AND WHERE THERE
IS WATER, THERE IS LIFE.

From Naming Nature
by T. A. Barron

In this lyrical journey
through 80 fascinating
creatures, bestselling
author T. A. Barron
combines a love of nature
and a love of words to
uncover the stories behind
the names we give the
living world.

From Naming Nature
by T. A. Barron

DISCOVER MORE
TABarron.com

@tabarronauthor

/TABarronFans

© 2026 T. A. Barron

Cut along the dotted lines

Fold along the grey line